Excerpt from History of New York, Vol. 2 The departure of Governor Tryon called back Lieutenant Governor Colden from his country house at Flushing to take up again, in his eighty sixth year, the reins of provincial government. Before Governor Tryon s departure news had arrived, on March loth, from St. Eustatius via Philadel phia, to the effect that the ship Nancy, Captain Lockyer, having been blown off the coast by contrary winds, had put into Antigua. So the vigi lance of the Sons of Liberty committee was redoubled, and was rewarded, on April 18th, by news that the vessel was in the outer harbor. The pilot did not deem it safe to take the vessel into the harbor, but the committee of the Sons of Liberty called 011 the captain and advised him that he could safely come up on condition that he should not enter his vessel at the Custom House. Coming ashore he was received with kindness, visiting his consignees, who refused to receive his cargo. He made his arrange ments to leave without unloading, and a handbill invited the...
