Xulon Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 184 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 4.9in. x 0.6in. First-Time Author Unlocks the Supernatural Power of God Helps readers tackle obsessive and addictive behaviors. Obsessive-addictive behaviors are more prevalent than we think. They devastate families, destroy relationships, and they can separate us from God. We can be deceived about our relationship with Jesus Christ and about being saved. First-time author D. M. Klatt's book, Grits, Rice, and Dustpan Biscuits: We Have a Choice explains what happens, why it happens, why we act and think the way we do, and what unlocks God's supernatural power. We have a choice and we will have eternity to think about it. The book runs the gamut in terms of topics, taking readers on a journey from Motown to the Temple Mount, Georgia to the gates of heaven, Abraham to Ahmadinejad, Ardennes to Armageddon, anti-depressants to the Antichrist, ADD to addiction, the Internet to Islam, and from denial to demonic spirits. Readers will learn how obsessive-addictive behaviors including eating, exercising, gambling, gossip, television, alcohol, prescription drugs, illegal drugs, sex, pornography, shopping, computer games, relationships, and more can keep us out of heaven. The average hard-working, financially secure Christian couple next door, lost everything they owned becoming homeless, facing starvation and death, only to have the truth revealed about God, themselves, their purpose in life, and what the future holds for us all. Three words changed their lives forever. This eye-opening experience is what inspired Klatt to put pen to paper and write down his views on truth, faith, and choice. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
