By Joy Jackson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Raven finds her load heavy, but it s nothing to a boss. Enemies come for her from every direction, and this borrowed lifestyle of Julz s, quickly becomes her own. Being his girl isn t enough to protect her out here in these streets. She s going to have to hold her own while keeping all business booming. Baby and Jake rise up, and together they hold their brother down. They also face problems with the enemy. When one enemy work their way right into the Miles s brothers circle, the consequences are deadly. Will Julz make it home? If he does will his family still be there all in one piece? Or will he find himself locked away and things falling apart and out of his control? Can Raven, Lea, Brooklyn and the girls, all come together and show Julz and his brothers why they were chosen to be a part of the team in the first place, or will the enemies and the game turn out to be more than they all can bare? One thing for...
