O not lishmen when they solicit for protection, but not Englishmen when. taxes are required to enable this country to-protect them But it is urged, that the colonies are by their charters placed under distinct Governments, each of which has a legislative power within itself, by which alone it ought to be taxed; that if this privilege is once given up, that liberty which every Englishman has a right to, is torn from them, they are all slavxes, and all is lost. The liberty of an Englishman is a phrase of so various a signification, having within these few years been used as a synonymous term for blasphemy, bawdy, treason, libels, strong beer, and cyder, that I shall not here presume to define its meaning; but I shall venture to assert what it cannot mean; that is, an exemption from taxes imposed by the authority of the parlia ment of Great Britain, nor is there any charter, that ever pretended to grant such a privilege to any colony in America; 5 and the whole legislature: their chaLTY are undoubtedly no more than those of all corporations, which empower them to make bye laws, and raise duties for the purposes of their own police, for ever subject to the superior authority of parliament; and in some of their charters, the manner of exercising these powers is specified in these express words, according to the course of other corporations in Great Britain z and therefore they...
