

Passage To Juneau (Paperback)

By Jonathan Raban

Pan MacMillan, United Kingdom, 2000. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Raban is, for my money, one of the key writers of the past three decades - not only for his immense stylistic showmanship, but also for the way he has taken that amorphous genre call travel writing and utterly redefined its frontiers. Passage to Juneau is his finest achievement to date. Ostensibly an account of a voyage Raban took from his new home in Seattle to the Alaskan capital through that labyrinthine sea route called the Inside Passage, it is, in essence, a book about the nature of loss. You close this extraordinary book marvelling at this most distressing but commonplace of ironies. He s home, but he s lost. Just like the rest of us Douglas Kennedy, Independent. This is an extraordinary book. The epic journey through eddies, rips, whirlpools and various other marine terrors quickly becomes intensely personal. Passage to Juneau is far more than a meditation on the sea and its meanings; it is also an unsparing self-examination, written with mordant humour and forensic ruthlessness Justin Cartwright, Daily Telegraph A thrilling adventure and a telling internal exploration. the writing contains natural description of...
