

Grace Among the Leavings

By Beverly Fisher

Thorncraft Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 140 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.0in. x 0.3in. Sometimes its hard to know who your enemies are. Or your friends, says the young narrator of Beverly Fishers beautifully written novella, GRACE AMONG THE LEAVINGS. That young narrator, Grace herself, speaks with the wisdom of innocence, telling the story of her familys heartbreaking struggle during the Civil War. Fishers story speaks to the young person in all of us, though it never condescends in the writing or the content. This is a deeply moving story, one not given to easy resolution, just as the issues of that long ago warslavery, self-determination, the privileges of classdefy a complete resolution even today. BARRY KITTERMAN, author of From the San Joaquin This is Grace, readers are told when the protagonist of GRACE AMONG THE LEAVINGS is introduced to the plantation owner whose age-old mandates she questions. With a childs simple reasoning, Beverly Fishers narrator enacts the stalwart sweetness of being called to the treetops, where she seems to sit, dandelion fluff in her hair, measuring the world against a farms laws of sacrifice and impermanence while men and women war against each other inside the home and out..
