Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Ignacio felt bored in that large room! It was nine in the morning on that Monday and he had nothing to do. His life had not been making any sense. He had a lot of money and so he did not need to work. True friends were nowhere to be found. He knew very well that those bohemians were loyal to his fortune, not to him. His one and only true companion was Jumping, his Schnauzer gray color dog, beautiful, small and mischievous. That day, as Ignacio was walking around the avenue The Beach, he saw the small stray dog stop in front of him. The little animal was looking at him so tenderly, having perhaps recognized that rare thing in Ignacio, that of being so carefree. Not knowing why, Ignacio took the dog in his arms and took him to his house giving him shelter and food. Surely, the dog was well kept because he was beautiful. The white teeth reflected his age: Three or four months. Ignacio did not find a suitable name for his pet. Always called him, Come here boy, and the little dog would run towards him. He jumped on two paws when he wanted to achieve something. Then the young man would say, jump, jump, jumping, the puppy jumping . And thus the small Schnauzer, the protected of the millionaire, began to be called Jumping. Sometimes Ignacio danced in his room with the music of a waltz and Jumping imitated him. He was wonderstruck by the talent of the small dog. As he had nothing better to do, he bought a book to train him and starting devoting all..
