Scene: - The interior of a police station; bare, and official looking. It belongs to the Canal Zone Police on the Isthmus of Panama. It is supposed to stand in an open space within fifty yards of a railroad station on the railroad between Colon and Panama. In the play the station is referred to as Las Palmas. The walls are of plaster or planed boards, in the back wall is a door opening on the level of the ground. Directly to the right of this door is a small stand or table holding a water cooler with a practical spigot and a white enameled cup. On the floor below the spigot, to catch the overflow of water, is a gray stone jar. In the right wall half way down stage is a door of iron bars with a large practical lock. This door is supposed to lead to a corridor of...
