Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Stone, Vol. 14: An Illustrated Magazine; December, 1896, to May, 1897 The accuracy of observation and quick sympathy of hand and eye needed accurately to reproduce the contours set before them, come to some persons as a natural endowment, while others can acquire them only by long and laborious practice. To such persons the exercises in graphical construction, described in some later paragraphs of this paper, are of special service. Like the preliminary surveys of an engineer, they serve to fix certain landmarks and enable him to block out his work. But it is not necessary, in copying drawings, photographs and prints at least, to put on the achievement of work really worth achieving upon subjects really worth working upon, until this skill in drawing outlines has been attained. For the student who is skilled in tracing is in a position to avail himself at once of the devices of transferring and squaring, and of the pentagraph and camera lucida, mechanical aids to which artists habitually resort to secure accuracy of form, but which, though they are by no means...
